

Sabrina F. Williams

Senior Tax Counsel, State Board of Equalization

Sabrina F. Williams is the Senior Tax Counsel within the Tennessee State Board of Equalization. Sabrina reviews and determines whether certain properties in West Tennessee qualify for a property tax exemption. She also serves as staff and, occasionally, administrative judge for the Assessment Appeals Commission.

Sabrina has many years of experience in Tennessee state government. She joined the Comptroller's Office in 1997 upon her graduation from law school. She has also worked with the Department of Human Resources in Atlanta, Georgia; Federal Express in Atlanta; and South Central Bell in Nashville, Tennessee.

Sabrina holds a Bachelor of Science in Mathematics from LeMoyne-Owen College in Memphis, Tennessee. She received her law degree from the Vanderbilt School of Law in Nashville. Interestingly, she decided to pursue her juris doctor 15 years after receiving her undergraduate degree.

Sabrina is a member of both the Tennessee Bar Association and the American Bar Association. In her spare time, she enjoys decorating and watching movies, especially classic films.
